"We are pleased to announce another capital raise, driven by investor demand, on the heels of a successful close of our previously announced financing. Momentum, confidence and demand in our business and market offerings continues to grow, particularly in the large enterprise multi-store retail segment. The proceeds from this raise will enable Clip Money to accelerate execution on these significant customer opportunities. The demand is driven by our unparalleled value proposition over legacy deposit options and the inefficiencies and ongoing reliability challenges associated with the legacy cash management ecosystem."
